

READ & RAISE

Read·A·Thon Fundraiser

1

What is it?

Patrick Henry Elementary is holding a Read-a-thon.

We know everyone will be happy with our decision to raise money by focusing on reading.

With your help we can raise lots of money while the kids work on their reading skills.

It's Easy.

How does it work?

Focus on Reading!!

Tell your friends and family about the Read-a-thon. People will gladly donate money to support your reading efforts.

Students get a FREE prize for participating. Student can choose other fun items each time someone donates money.

What do you need to do?

Go to the website below and enter the secret code. In a couple minutes you will create your student's Read-a-thon page, share it with everyone you know and choose a free prize. That's it.

Go to: www.read-a-thon.com/readers/

Nearly everyone has built their personal
Read-a-thon page.
Thank You!

Have you created one for your student?

It is very important for everyone to participate in our Read-a-thon event. The only way to track reading sessions, earn prizes and help us raise money is to build your student's personal Read-A-Thon web page.

If You have already created your student's Read-A-Thon page please disregard this sheet.
